

Vintage woodworking machines in action! July 30

The Eureka Heritage Society announces its

2011 SUMMER EVENT

Saturday, July 30, 2011 11:30 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.
$15 for Members, $18 for Guests

Join us for an afternoon at Blue Ox Millworks

- ◆ Tour one of America's last Victorian job shops with our hosts, Eric and Viviana Hollenbeck, of Blue Ox Millworks Historic Park, where the craftsmanship, tools, and techniques of the last century are utilized to produce authentic custom millwork. Using a unique collection of antique woodworking machinery from the 1800s and early 1900s, Blue Ox Millworks has produced historic reproductions for customers all over the United States.
- ◆ Live music
- ◆ Event fee includes a boxed picnic lunch with assorted beverages

Reservations are required by Wednesday, July 27.

Please send your check with your choice of either turkey, ham or vegetarian sandwich for each person attending to Eureka Heritage Society, P.O. Box 1354, Eureka, CA 95502.

For more information, call Janet Warren at 444-3314.

Blue Ox Millworks Historic Park is located at One "X" Street. Ample parking is available on First Street, X Street, and vicinity. Walking shoes are recommended as there are stairways to climb. Visit www.blueoxmill.com

*See you at
Blue Ox Millworks
July 30!*